TRY

SPRATT'S

OVALS

The famous pocket DOG BISCUIT

About 120 of these weigh a pound.

Toys want them every day, but they make a fine snack for big dogs also.

The best diet for big and medium breeds is—

SPRATT'S MEAT FIBRINE DOG CAKES

HAVE YOU EVER TRIED SPRATT'S "FIBO"?

The most appetizing granulated dog food on the market. FIBO cannot be resisted by shy or delicate feeders for which nothing is so enticing. It stimulates the palate to a marked degree, but at the same time is a pure, wholesome meal, NOT treated with products of a sugary nature to make it toothsome.

SCOTTISH TERRIERS

Judge—Mr. Vinton P. Breese

The SCOTTISH TERRIER CLUB OF AMERICA (Caswell Barrie, secretary-treasurer, 31 East 77th Street, New York City), offers the following specials, to be competed for during 1923, open to its members only unless otherwise specified. Any award void unless at least two members have competed for that award. To be finally awarded to the dogs and bitches winning the most points during the year, each win to count the same number of points as the A. K. C. rating of the show at which it is made:

- 169. The MEDOR KENNELS offer the Champion Medor Dreadnaught Trophy for the best of the opposite sex to the winner of the club's American or Canadian-bred trophy. Champions barred. Open to all.
- 170. The Francis G. Lloyd Memorial Trophy, a perpetual Challenge Cup, for the best of either sex. A Silver Club Medal to be awarded annually to the dog or bitch scoring the greatest number of points. The owner's name and that of the winner to be engraved on the trophy, which will be in the custody of the winning owner for the ensuing year.
- 171. The 1923 American or Canadian bred Trophy, value $25.00, for the best American or Canadian bred of either sex, champions barred.
- 172. The 1923 Exhibitor's Trophy, value $25.00, for the best of either sex, bred by exhibitor.
- 173. The 1923 Puppy Trophy, value $25.00, for the best puppy, either sex. To be won by the exhibitor or kennel winning the most points during the year, not necessarily with the same puppy.
- 174. $2.50 in cash for the best coated Scottish Terrier at the show.
- 175. Mr. C. E. JEFFREY, JR., offers the President's Trophy, value $50.00, for the best of either sex winning the most points under Club rules during 1923. The dog or bitch must be shown by its owner in the regular and special classes in competing for this trophy.

- 176. The Trap Rock Produce Plate, presented by Mrs. DANIEL W. EVANS, for the best brood bitch and two of her produce twelve months or under. The merits of the latter only to be considered. To be won three times by same exhibitor with the same or different brood bitch. At least two members competing.
- 177. Mr. HENRY D. EIXBY offers the Novice Trophy, value $25.00, open to all, for the best dog or bitch entered by exhibitor who has not shown a dog previous to 1923.
- 178. Mr. H. R. B. TWEED of England offers the Laindon-Lockhart Trophy, a Silver Challenge Cup, for the best American or Canadian bred Scottish Terrier, including champions. A Silver Club Medal to be awarded annually to the dog or bitch scoring the greatest number of points. The owner's name and that of the winner to be engraved on the trophy, which will be in the custody of the winning owner for the ensuing year. To be finally awarded outright to the owner or kennel making three yearly wins, not necessarily in consecutive years or with the same dog.
- 179. Miss MARGARET KIRMSE offers a Bronze Statuette of a Scottie (her own make), for the best two puppies sired by the same dog, to be won three times, not necessarily with the same two puppies, with at least two members of the S. T. C. competing.
- 180. The BALLANTRAE KENNELS offer the Ballantrae Trophy, value $25.00, for the American-bred Scottish Terrier with the best head, to be judged according to the Scottish Terrier Club Standard and to be awarded to the dog or bitch scoring the greatest number of points up to and including the 1924 Specialty Show of the Club, open to members only.
- 181. Mr. and Mrs. SHERWOOD HALL offer the Glenmanor Glen-gairn Coat Trophy, a Bronze Model of a Scottish Terrier, for the best coated American-bred Scottish Terrier, open to all. A Silver Club Medal to be awarded to the dog or bitch scoring the greatest number of points. The owner's name and that of the winner to be engraved on the trophy, which will be in the custody of the winning owner for the ensuing year. It will finally be awarded to the owner or kennel making two yearly wins, not necessarily in consecutive years or with the same dog.
